LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 17, 2021-- Cannae Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:CNNE) ("Cannae" or the "Company") today announced that the Company has led a $270 million funding round in Sightline Payments ("Sightline") having invested $240 million. This investment follows Cannae's $32 million investment earlier in 2021 and values Sightline at more than $1 billion, post-money.

Gaming is one of America's last cash-centric businesses, with hundreds of billions of dollars running through casinos annually. Sightline Payments was founded over a decade ago by Omer Sattar, Tom Sears, and Kirk Sanford to give consumers a way to safely and securely fund their online gaming experience, starting with New Jersey's launch of online gaming in 2013. Sightline has helped power the exponential growth of sports betting after the Supreme Court overturned the federal ban in 2018 and continues to lead the industry in innovation by launching cashless gaming in brick-and-mortar casinos.

William P. Foley, II, Chairman of Cannae, commented, "After seeing Sightline's groundbreaking technology firsthand at the recent launch of Resorts World Las Vegas, I am more bullish than ever about Sightline's ability to be at the forefront of the digital transformation afoot in the North American gaming, sports, and entertainment ecosystem. Gaming is poised for a cashless revolution and Sightline is positioned to be a leader. I look forward to helping Sightline continue their tremendous growth."

This $270 million round is Sightline's second round in 2021 having closed an earlier $100 million funding round in April, as part of which Cannae invested $32 million. Building upon Sightline's growth in the gaming and hospitality sectors, Sightline recently acquired JOINGO, the casino gaming industry's top mobile engagement and loyalty platform.
